

A couple of gross motor skills ideas

If you have some coloured tape or masking tape, you can make a great game to develop gross motor skills!

You can use any colours to do this..and if you don't have bean bags to can simply call out a colour for your child to jump to!

